

Launch of tectraxx in Carinthia

Opening of a new logistics center in Klagenfurt

The high tech logistics company tectraxx continues implementing its expansion plans in Austria. Together with business partners Alcatel-Lucent and PaperNet, the Gebrüder Weiss Business Unit issued invitations to the opening of the logistics center in Klagenfurt on June 15. Tectraxx is already represented in Vienna, Lower and Upper Austria, as well as in Styria. Jürgen Bauer, tectraxx Manager at GW, made the opening speech.

In March of this year, tectraxx commenced operation of the new logistics center in the Carinthian capital. The location opening was celebrated on June 15, together with partners Alcatel-Lucent and PaperNet. 60 guests were invited, including Gebrüder Weiss Regional Director Jürgen Bauer, Karl Ferdinand Tautscher - Regional Manager of Alcatel-Lucent Carinthia and PaperNet signatory Peter Preitler none of whom wanted to miss the opportunity of having a look behind the scenes.

Step by step towards total area coverage

Increasing customer requirements and the desire to make the supply and servicing of end customers more efficient were instrumental in the decision to set up this new location in Carinthia. Bernhard Mandl, Business Development Manager at tectraxx, speaks of a first step towards being able to operate with total coverage of Austria in the medium term: "With regional branches, we are in the position of being able to offer faster delivery times, as well as a prompter service for end customers."

Future-oriented set-up

It is in Klagenfurt that the regional warehouses and offices of telecoms giant Alcatel-Lucent are operated. For the paper wholesaler PaperNet, tectraxx will be taking over transport and logistics services. From the point of view of Alcatel-Lucent, the new facilities are oriented towards the future, says Karl Ferdinand Tautscher: "We are more flexible, given these prerequisites, consequently equipped for new markets and new customer requirements." Johann Mathauser, Despatch and Fleet Manager at PaperNet also sees the development as being positive: "Since March, tectraxx has been handling the entire warehousing and delivery for Carinthia and East Tyrol - the set-up at the Klagenfurt location is very good."
